

February 15, 2008

CUPE 410 Library Workers Need Your Support

VICTORIA—With CUPE 410 workers at the Greater Victoria Public Library facing a lockout by management on Sunday (February 17), there are many ways you can learn more about the dispute and show support.

Here are some ways that CUPE members and the public in Greater Victoria are helping:

- Visit overduepromise.ca and send an email to your municipal council.
- Write a letter to the editor of your newspaper.
- Call, email, or write your municipal politicians.
- Attend a meeting of your municipal council and express your concerns.
- Call a radio talk show during open segments and express your opinion on the air.

Breaking news and Local 410's strike blog are at www.cupe410.ca

Facebook users can join support groups and post encouraging messages at: Alice Is Wondering Why Library Workers Don't Have Pay Equity and I Love GVPL.

Visit the CUPE 410 gallery for the latest images of members.

Keep visiting this website and www.overduepromise.ca for updates. More information about the lockout will be provided soon.

Contact: Dan Gawthrop, CUPE National communications representative 604-999-6132